

Philippe Salaün
CFO

Philippe Salaün has an extensive experience in finance and administrative positions in the high technology sector. Before joining 3S Photonics in 2013, Philippe was CFO of Scaleo chip, a semi-conductor company. He was previously VP Finance and Director of Open Plug, a mobile phone software company, sold to Alcatel Lucent in 2010, after being VP Finance and Director of Right Vision, an Internet company, also acquired by Alcatel in 2004 and for which he was subsequently in charge of the merger process until 2006. He was previously Finance Director of Alpha MOS, world leader in “Electronic Noses”, dealing with the IPO of the company and its floatation on Alternext. He spent 10 years in positions as Senior Manager in audit and corporate finance at Arthur Andersen and KPMG. Philippe is a graduate of ESSEC (Paris, France), one of France’s leading business schools and holds a Maîtrise (BA) in Economics from Dauphine University (Paris). He is also a fully qualified Expert Comptable (CPA).